

CLEVELEY BRIDGE ANGLING RULES

Day Tickets (permits) are available on the banks at Cleveley Bridge for general coarse fishing. Payment can be made in the Tackle & Bait shop, the hut office or you may set up and we will collect payment & issue a ticket on the bank, carry it with you together with some form of identification and an appropriate EA rod licence.

Rod sharing is not permitted.

It is a condition of purchase that you accept and agree to spot checks of your Permit(s) EA licence, identification, tackle, equipment, bags and catch at any time.

Anyone considered by the duty manager, bailiff or a staff member of Cleveley Bridge to be contravening their permit terms, or any of these rules, will have any fish in their possession confiscated and will be required to leave the site immediately without compensation. Cleveley Bridge reserves the right to exclude anglers at any time from the whole or any part of Cleveley Bridge.

Anglers park their cars at their own risk and are requested to park sensibly and not on any grassed areas please.

Preventing the spread of disease – If you have fished elsewhere recently please ensure that your footwear and tackle have been thoroughly cleaned and dried so as to minimise the risk of spreading disease. We provide dips to disinfect your tackle before you start fishing and please disinfect after fishing and before leaving Cleveley Bridge.

Anglers must respect, follow and observe the Country Code. This means no litter, no dogs running loose on site, no loud music, NO fires and barbecues must be kept off the ground.

Children must be supervised at all times.

The duty manager (Bailiff) telephone number is 07958 797117.

In the event of a serious emergency telephone 999.

Cleveley Bridge post code for location is PR3 1BY.
